

Toward International Cooperation in Protein Science

～蛋白質研究の世界連携に向けて～

Organizers : Hiroyuki Noji (Univ. of Tokyo), Hiroki Shirai (Astellas Pharma Co., Ltd.),
Yuji Goto (Osaka Univ.)

Date : June 21 (Wed), 2017, 16:00 - 18:30

Place : Sendai International Center (2F Meeting Room 4) 仙台国際センター(2F会議室4)

The Asia Pacific Protein Association (APPA), founded in 2004, aims at advancing cooperation and collaboration in all aspects of protein science among countries in the Asia Pacific region. APPA organizes an International Conference that provides a forum to support communication, cooperation and collaboration. On 11-14 July 2017, the APPA Conference will be held at Bangsaen, Thailand as a joint symposium with the Protein Society of Thailand (PST). In 2020, we plan to have a Joint Symposium between the APPA, Protein Society, and PSSJ in Japan. We believe that the 2020 Joint Symposium will be a great opportunity to further fostering protein science both in the Asia Pacific region and globally. This workshop aims to be one of important steps to the 2020 Joint Symposium.
